DEATH OF BELLE BOYD, THE FAMOUS REBEL

Did Dangerous Service in the Confederate Army and Was Twice Sentenced to Be Shot as a Spy-President Lincoln Saved Her.

Won Love of Union Lieutenant and Stole His Signal Books - Afterward Married Him in London in Presence of the Prince of Wales.

Belle Boyd, the Confederate Spy, died at Killourne, Wis., yesterday of heart disease. She had gone to that city to Bhe was born in 1844 in West Virginia. Her uncle was Alexander Stephenson for several terms Speaker of the National House of Representatives. Twice during the Civil War she was sentenced to be shot, but through strong influence the sentences were commuted by President Lincoln, and finally she was banished from the country, only turning when the amnesty was declared. Belle Boyd's mother was the daughter was an officer in the Confederate army In 1861 she killed a soldier who assaulted her mother and then entered the Confederate service. At first she merely conveyed message from one soldier to another, but she be gan giving information respecting the country in which the Federal troops were operating and finally was the bearer of despatches between Winchester and Front Royal

It was after Gen. Nathaniel P. Banks been driven across the Potomac that Belle Boyd was captured and taken to Washington, where she was kept in the old Capitol building until September 1862, when she was exchanged for Col Corcoran, of the Sixty-ninth New York ader of the famous Irish Brigade

SENTENCED TO BE SHOT.

vas commissioned Captain in the Confederate army and made an alde-decamp on the staff of Gen. "Stonewall

She was married to a Major In the army, who, three hours after the cere-mony, went to the front and was killed at Antietam. She later joined the staff of Gen. Joe Johnston, and acted as a

After the defeat of Gen Lee at Getbsequently arrested and taken to ship Greyhaund for Wilmington, Del, ax yous shock. the bearer of confidential communications to the British Government. The Greyhound was captured by the Con-

During the voyage she met Lleut. Samuel Harding and promised to marry him provided he left the navy. This he tion gave to her his signal books.

Reaching Boston she was court-mar- [ knew it escorted to the Canadian border by a United States Marshal and told that if she ever entered the country again she married to Lieur Harding, who had followed her there.

The Prince of Wales was present when the ceremony was performed at St. James's, Piccadilly. Her husband died a for months later, and she returned to the United States.

She entered the dramatic profession and married Col. Hammond, of the Seventeenth Massachusetta vounteers, and after his death she married Na

SHIPPING NEWS.

ALMANAC TO-DAY

PORT OF NEW YORK.

ARRIVED.

OUTGOING STEAMSHIPS. SAILED TO-DAY. dverpoel, men, El Sud, New Orleans El Sud, New Orleans Tomo, Inagua. Havana. Strauma, Pernambuco. Silvia, Newfoodland. Prima, Yucatan. To MORROW. Sal Marcos, Galvaten, Laturaph Havana, Catania, Pernambuco.

INCOMING STEAMSHIPS DUB TO-DAY.

Southwark, Antwerp. Batavia, Hamburg.

B. Altman & Co. have made large reductions in the prices of INFANIS' WEAR, including Spring and Summer styles in Short Coats, Reefers, Hats and Caps, and Gingham Dresses.

B. Altman & Co. offer for Wednesday, June 13th, Several Thousand Yards of this season's FANCY SILKS, desirable for Separate Waists and Costumes for Indoor and Street Wear.

Regular prices $1.00 to $1.50

68c. Yard.

BULLET KILLED AN UNBORN BABE.

Misery of Mrs. Theresa Tracey, Who Shot at Her Son-in-Law and Wounded Her Own Daughter.

MISS CAROLINE BRANNON

After her release she went Bouth, and Young Woman Leaped Over Palisades and Was Saved Only by a Miracle.

between a Atysburg and by runaway horses, Miss Caroline Branion plunged over the edge of the Palis sades near Englewood, tumbled down a precipice more than 100 feet high, lay for Washington. After seven months she rocks and was finally rescued by a was court-martialled and sentenced to yachting party coming down the Hud-Her release was effected son. She is now at her home, 161 West through exchange, and she returned Ninety-ninth street, suffering from no more serious injuries than a number of In May, 1864, she satled on the steam- bad cuts and bruses and a severe ner-

BY CAROLINE BRANNON. necticut, which started for Boston with Dictated exclusively to an Evening

World reporter.

These she turned over to Capt. Heers, of the Greyhound, who escaped, and made his way to the West Indies, whence he sent the books to the Confederate Government.

Reaching Boston she was court-mar-

"I thought I was conscious all the tialled and sentenced to be shot. Licut.

Harding was also court-martialled, but when I jumped out of the carriage, and when I jumped out of the carriage, and they say it was after? when I was picked up, and it seemed to me the two things happened right close together.

They landed me home here at 2 o'clock in the morning, and Dr. Williams says I am not injured.

Rith came around next day half scared to death. She didn't dare ask was allowed finally to resign his com- they say it was after 9 when I was picked asked to take a drive with two young ried to run away awfully excited and well at that Rith was screening to me

DOWN, DOWN, DOWN!

w we were on the edge of the There were bushes all along at that point, and when i

NOT BADLY HURT.

COULDN'T WED; SICK BABIES TRIED TO DIE.

John Glesten, Too Poor Many Cases of Illness to Marry, Tried Suicide.

his sixteen-year-old sweetheart came treating little sufferers in the tenement this morning and he hadn't the price of I desiglets. tickets he concluded life wasn't worth living and stabbed himself four times with his pocket knife in his mother's World Sick Babies' Fund gives an in-

He was overpowered by his father and brother, handcuffed by Policeman As soon as I got Nos. Maker's letter I was Steinhauer and taken to St. Vincent's to see her sick haps. She has four sickly, cough-Hospital, where he will recover ing children and is in ill-health. Her husband Hospital, where he will recover John J. is the son of John Glester.

whose shoe shop in Spring street burn, and out in April, 1899. John, who had worked for his father, found other employment for a time. But he has been out of work five months and his pockets were dolefully empty. He had a sweetheart whose identity is Jealousity guarded by his friends. She is only stateen, and the hest tests that money could buy and ought Mrs. Maker is see that they got lots at smaller and fresh air.

were detertity is jealously guardheart whose identity is jealously guarded by his friends. She is only sixteen years old and a beautiful girl but though her mamma calls him "son-inlaw, her folks and his forbit their marriage until he is in a position to support her and he has been awfully despondent.

NOW IS THE TIME TO ADVERTISE

FOR SUMMER BOARDERS WHY NOT USE THE WORLD? IT IS A
GREAT MEDIUM. THREE MILLION
PROPLE READ THE SUNDAY EDI
THE SUNDAY EDI
THE WORLD? IT IS A
GREAT MEDIUM. THREE MILLION
PROPLE READ THE SUNDAY EDI
THE WORLD, IT IS A
GREAT MEDIUM. THREE MILLION
PROPLE READ THE SUNDAY EDI
THE WORLD, IT IS A
GREAT MEDIUM. THREE MILLION
PROPLE READ THE SUNDAY EDI
THE WORLD, IT IS A
GREAT MEDIUM. THREE MILLION
PROPLE READ THE SUNDAY EDI
THE WORLD, IT IS A
GREAT MEDIUM. THREE MILLION
PROPLE READ THE SUNDAY EDI
THE WORLD, IT IS A
GREAT MEDIUM. THREE MILLION
PROPLE READ THE SUNDAY EDI
THE WORLD, IT IS A
GREAT MEDIUM. THREE MILLION
PROPLE READ THE SUNDAY EDI
THE WORLD, IT IS A
GREAT MEDIUM. THREE MILLION
PROPLE READ THE SUNDAY EDI
THE WORLD, IT IS A
GREAT MEDIUM. THREE MILLION
PROPLE READ THE SUNDAY EDI
THE WORLD, IT IS A
GREAT MEDIUM. THREE MILLION
PROPLE READ THE SUNDAY EDI
THE WORLD, IT IS A
GREAT MEDIUM. THREE MILLION
PROPLE READ THE SUNDAY EDI
THE WORLD, IT IS A
GREAT MEDIUM. THREE MILLION
PROPLE READ THE SUNDAY EDI
THE WORLD, IT IS A
GREAT MEDIUM. THREE MILLION
PROPLE READ THE SUNDAY EDI
THE WORLD, IT IS A
GREAT MEDIUM. THREE MILLION
PROPLE READ THE SUNDAY EDI
THE WORLD, IT IS A
GREAT MEDIUM. THREE MILLION
PROPLE READ THE SUNDAY EDI
THE WORLD, IT IS A
GREAT MEDIUM. THREE MILLION
PROPLE READ THE SUNDAY EDI
THE WORLD, IT IS A
GREAT MEDIUM. THREE MILLION
PROPLE READ THE SUNDAY EDI
THE WORLD AND THE WORLD

Among the Children of the Poor.

ried John J. Glesten was despondent for many cases of illness among the of the poor, and The Evening miors have their hands full, to shoot him. Her dauguity, in tryling to save a most herself. A hullet wound trough the stormach are not herself. A hullet wound trough the stormach are not herself. A hullet wound trough the stormach are not herself. A hullet wound trough the stormach are not seen usuarreding.

The bone of contention was the young man's boast that he had compared the heart of several women that day at a consultation. The he is must be sweed up, And hearts of several women that day at at comp Island.

"It was my daughter's delicate health that made his boasting so wicked," said Mrs. Traces to an Evening World reporter to-day. We all knew that in a few weeks she was to present to him heir first child, and when he came home hoasting of his escapades with women it, drove me wild with resentment.

"I am sory that I should have been sorry, But now I have short medical and comfort her and he had been of an caused the death of my grandehild. Could any one be more unappy?"

Mrs. Traces sat in her cell, rocking ferself leaks and forth on the shard couch walling with the misery of one who has cried till the eyes refuse to shell earls. Her nair, which had hardly a grap of the product of the world again and again that she wised to be shelf and a made of the size of the product of the many of the product of the miser of the general fund for the year have to be deducted. This general fund is made up of money collected during the year and student at Yule, and Natide Mays. Anna M. The plaintiff was Miss. Anna to die.

COLYES

Iller nair, wnich hal hardly a gray rand in it a week ago, is now thickly rinkled with eliver. Deep lines are arked in her well-bred, knodly bid as extill be held for the death of her grand-base parts of the daughter recovers will Mrs. Tracey arked in her well-bred, knodly bid as extill be held for the death of her grand-base here.

It dele Mr. Logan was found unconscious at Thirtieth street and Broadway on Sattack and the daughter recovers will Mrs. Tracey are the was to have been buried in Pottack and the week ago, is now thickly a gray to the death of the infant. If the daughter recovers will Mrs. Tracey are the was to have been buried in Pottack and the week ago, is now thickly a gray to the death of the infant. If the daughter recovers will Mrs. Tracey are the was to have been buried in Pottack and the week ago, is now thickly a gray to the death of the infant. If the daughter recovers will Mrs. Tracey are the was to have been buried in Pottack and the week ago, is now thickly a gray to the death of the infant. If the daughter recovers will mrs. Tracey are the was to have been buried to daughter recovers will be held for the death of the gray to the gray

300 LOST IN ARCTIC?

lee Going to Cape TACOMA, Wash, June 12 - News of

In her unspeakable misery Mrs. | physician that her daughter would get

In her unspeakable misery Mrs. Division that her daughter would get There's Tracey, of No. 163 runnam average. There's Tracey, of No. 163 runnam average at 2 William most of the officials at the Raymond most of the officials at the Raymond of view. The young woman, who was wounted while trying to wrest the alker alke

YANKEE BRIG LOST AT SEA.

Alpha May Have Been Crushed in Telos Was Abandoned Off the South American Coast-Crew letter was dated May 19, and says the of this city, followed by another to the this forenoon he got a bottle of carbolic Beard of Underwriters, reports that the Fears were entertained lest the vessel, which sailed from New York and but was sent to Gouverneur Hospital, but was sent to Gouverneur Hospital, but was discharged before noon. Only the outside of his lips was burned.

Get Hot

Keep Cool!

Calm!

Pleasant!

Mrs. Havemeyer Serves Nearly Eighty-one Mill-Writ on Frederick Havemeyer.

the widow of the late Thomas Have-meyer, the Sugar Trust magnate, is ment of Comptroller Coler was received the daughter recovers will Mrs. Tracey at the daughter recovers will Mrs. Tracey at the death of her grand-daughter?

He was to have been buried in Pottainghter?

Etc. Fleed to-day, but Messrs, Steiner & Maloy, of Thirtieth street and Broadbury the side of her mother in the jall, way, who were close friends of the says that her mother did only what any mother might have done in her place.

BABY TOOK SOME ACID.

Had His Lips Burned, but Not Seriously.

While Jacob Korlinsky, a Jour-year the Cape Nome fleet was received here. A cablegram from the captain of the oil boy at 50 Allen street, was at play to-day in a letter from John Gleason, brigantine Telos to Miller & Houghton, about his mother's house at 10 o'clock

YARMOUTH'S SALARY AS AN ACTOR HERE.

75c. Weekly! 75c. Weekly!

FURNITURE, CARPETINGS, DRAPERIES. &C.

consists in buying only the best of household goods, guaranteed to stand the wear and tear. That's the only kind we sell, and the prices quoted below will give you some idea as to the money you can save

TRUE ECONOMY

by placing your order with us.

ions of Dollars to Be Raised by Taxation.

got from Justice Bischoff to-day an of- which the revenues of the general fund der permitting her to serve the sum- for the year have to be deducted.

afternoon in the woods at One Hundred Coachman Swears Masand Eighty-eighth street and Amsterdam evenue by sending a builet into his

There was notring in the suicide's pockets to identify him. He was about twenty-six years old and had brown hair and mustache. He was dressed in a gray coat and vest, brown trousers, brown hat, white shirt,

ACID WOMAN BAILED.

Death of Mrs. Sarah McCarthy.

Has Been Released. James H. Breslin, of the Gilsey House appeared before Judge McMahon in Part L of General Sessions and qualified dicted for kinds a year ago.

Judge McMahon fixed the bail at $3,000 at the request of Mrs. Ryan's lawyer, Abraham Levy.

Mrs. Ryan killed Mrs. McCarthy by throwing carbolic acid in her face. Advertisements for THE WORLD will be Best made-best braid. Straw Hats,

$1.50, $2.50.

BROADWAY Cor. 13th St.
Cor. Canal St.
Near Chamber

Boarders Wanted

26TH ST., 463 W -Good table, reasonable rates

ter's Mind Wandered on Death Bed.

coachman to the late Robert Bonner, testified this afternoon in the contest end of his last illness Mr. Bonner at times seemed to be forgetful and dopey."

"What do you mean by 'dopey?"" Well, that his mind was under some influence. Hie mind was wandering He was not as bright as he had been

CRANE'S BODY COMING.

Widow Arrives in London with Novelists Remains-Burial to Be at Newark.

LONDON, June 12.- The body of Stethen Crane, the American novelist, who brought to London to-day by Mrs. Crane. The burial will probably take place at Newark, N. J., where the other members of the Crane family are intered.